

Anagama Woodfired Pottery Exhibit

The Santa Rosa Arts and Culture Foundation will showcase a unique display of pottery from wood-fueled kilns.

Thirty or more artists from the Gulf Coast Kiln Walk Society created the earthenware.

A reception to honor these talented artists will be on January 25th, 2008, from 5:00-8:00pm

At The Dragonfly Gallery
5188 Escambia Street
Milton, Florida
850-981-1100
www.sracf.org

News Release: January 21, 2008

An Opening Reception will take place January 25th 2008 from 5pm-8pm, at The Dragonfly Gallery. The reception will be honoring thirty or more talented artists from the Gulf Coast Kiln Walk Society. This display is in conjunction with the third firing of the Anagama Kiln in Holley, Florida. Designs from the first and second firing of the Anagama Kiln will also be included in the show.

The artists started loading the wood-fueled kiln on January 13th and bricked for the lighting on January 16th. The kiln will be fired for seven days and cooled for seven days. Opening of the kiln will be during the 2nd Annual Woodstoke Pottery Festival on February 2nd 2008. The Festival will take place at the kiln in Holley on the corner of Highway 87 and Buckeye Drive.

The Dragonfly Gallery is a mission of the Santa Rosa Arts and Culture Foundation. Gallery hours are Tuesday-Saturday from 10am-4pm.
850-981-1100

www.sracf.org

The Dragonfly Gallery
5188 Escambia Street Milton, Florida

Submitted by,
Margie Baldwin
Public Relations / Publicity / Webmaster
Santa Rosa Arts & Culture Foundation
850-981-1100 (Dragonfly Gallery)
www.santarosaarts.org or www.sracf.org

